Let's Talk About It

The Challenges of Being a Latinx Child

By Yvette Tello

Do you think children and adolescents of Latino/Hispanic background often face different challenges like language barriers, parental citizenship status, and the economic disadvantages can result in depression, substance abuse, gang-related violence, domestic violence, and suicide? Let's talk about it..

David Bryan: “ We all have problems. Suicide and depression has not prejudice. All cultures are affected.”

Andrea Adame: “ Not being accepted affects our mental health so yes being latino can result in depression and suicide. Imagine not having your parents from one day to the next because they are not legal to be here?”

Raphael Trevino: “ Latinos are made tougher than most. We have been struggling with these issues for a very long time and our suicide rates have only increased when we started “talking about it.” When this was a part of what we had to accept, it was just a part of life and we were not sad about it or killing ourselves over it. We didn’t like it and it wasn’t right but it was part of life.”

Bexar County Bail Practices in Misdemeanor Cases

Letter From HONORABLE JUDGE RON RANGEL

379th Criminal District Court

After consulting with Bexar County Judge Nelson Wolff, Bexar County Criminal District Attorney Joe Gonzales, and Chief Public Defender Michael Young, we believe that Bexar County Courts-at-Law handling criminal cases could benefit greatly from following Harris County's recently implemented bail reform practices. The Harris County bail practices were changed to comply with O'Donnell v. Harris County, 892 F.3d 147 (5th Cir. 2018). In O'Donnell, the Fifth Circuit set the standard for implementing bail practices that protect arrestees' constitutional rights. We ask that you consider making the same changes to your courts' misdemeanor bail policies.

On November 21, 2019, Chief United States District Judge Lee H. Rosenthal signed a Memorandum and Opinion approving a settlement of the O'Donnell case involving Harris County bail practices in misdemeanor cases. The O'Donnell court found that bail schedules in Harris County were being "mechanically applied" based on "prescheduled bail amount[s]." The O'Donnell district court opinion notes that the proposed consent decree arising out of the settlement requires Harris County to carry out a broad range of bail reforms. In response, the Harris County Criminal Courts-at-Law Judges reformed their bail policies. Harris County Criminal Courts-at-Law Local Rule 9 expressly provides that its new bail policies for all persons arrested for a misdemeanor offense are to vindicate the federal constitutional rights at issue in O'Donnell v. Harris County, 251 F. Supp. 3d 1052 (S.D. Tex. 2017), affirmed in part, reversed in part, vacated in part, and remanded, 892 F.3d 147 (5th Cir. 2018).

These new bail policies that are listed in the November 21, 2019, Consent Decree and set out in the Harris County Criminal Courts-at-Law Local Rule 9, provide, among other requirements, that all misdemeanor arrestees must be released on a personal bond (P.R. bond) or on non-financial conditions as soon as practicable after arrest, except those who fall within the following categories, who may be detained for up to 48 hours for an individualized hearing:

- Individuals arrested and charged under Penal Code § 25.07 [violation of certain court orders or conditions of bond in a family violence, sexual assault or abuse, indecent assault, stalking, or trafficking case];
- Individuals arrested and charged under Penal Code § 22.01, against a person described in Penal Code § 22.01(b)(2) (assault against a family or household member), or individuals arrested and charged under Penal Code § 22.07(c)(1) [making a terroristic threat against a family or household member];?
- Individuals arrested and charged under Penal Code § 49.04 (driving while intoxicated) and who the State gives notice may be subject to Penal Code § 49.09(a) [enhanced offenses and penalties based on a prior DWI conviction] for a conviction that became final within the past five years;
- Individuals arrested and charged with any new offense while on any form of pretrial release;*
- Individuals arrested on a writ of habeas corpus issued after a bond forfeiture or bond revocation; and
- Individuals arrested while on any form of community supervision for a Class A or B misdemeanor or a felony offense.

We believe you will agree with us that it serves the public's interest to improve bail practices here in Bexar County. Thus, to further the administration of justice, Bexar County Judge Wolff, District Attorney Gonzales, and Chief Public Defender Young have all agreed to join the Bexar County Criminal Courts-at-Law consider endorsing bail policies similar to those adopted in Harris County. Such bail reform measures would play a critical role in guaranteeing that the constitutional due process rights of all Bexar County arrestees will be protected.

We sincerely hope you all are ready to continue advancing meaningful bail reform in Bexar County. If you have any questions or would like assistance in drafting new bail reform policies, would be happy to help.

Sincerely

Mexican Colonized History 1821-1993

A Brief and Partial Chronology of Texas

The Summer of 1971

Researched, compiled & edited by Mario Longoria, Ph.D.

-1971. The year 1971 was of particular legal significance to Mexican Americans in Texas. At the time, many Mexican American students attending public schools in all grades were either de facto or legally segregated.

The following 1971 court cases as well as Intervention by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare to address the issue of “de segregation of schools in Texas. The judges and attorneys for the State of Texas were true to their racists’ inclinations with interpretations, arguments and intentions to prevent compliance with Federal Civil Rights’ laws and equality in education.

--Case: Alvarado v. El Paso Independent School District. The court dismissed a Chicano Class Action Suit that alleged racial and ethnic discrimination in the schools. The court reversed a lower decision of the class action de-segregation suit based on racial rather than legal principles.

--Case: (May 24) Ross v. Eckels. The court action involved the Houston Independent School District. The judge hearing the case was extremely prejudicial in his capacity to oppose the federal order to de-segregate the schools.

--Case: (June 1). Morales v. Uvalde Independent School District. The court stated that any segregation in Uvalde was de facto and they could not allow Mexican Americans to re-vamp and revise the entire school system which had been elected under the “so-called” democratic process of the people

--Case: (June 23). Thomas v. Bryan Independent School District. The court found that the school district officially segregated Mexican American children. As such, the court ordered Bryan ISD to abstain from discrimination on the basis of race, color or ethnic origin but adamantly refused to comply.

--Case: (June 28). United States v. Austin Independent School District. The court’s central issue was whether the Mexican American had been segregated by actions of the school district. The court conceded that even the most casual examination of Mexican American culture disclosed Mexican Americans as a separate ethnic group. But, the existence of an ethnic group, regardless of racial origin, and standing alone did not establish a case for integrating it with the remainder of the school population. Therefore, there was no compliance to de segregate.

La solicitud del permiso, la decisión preliminar del Director Ejecutivo, y el borrador del permiso están disponibles para leer y copiar en la Biblioteca Central de San Antonio (San Antonio Central Library), 600 Soledad Street, San Antonio, Texas.

COMENTARIO PUBLICO / REUNION PUBLICA. Usted puede presentar comentarios públicos o pedir una reunión pública sobre esta solicitud. El propósito de una reunión pública es proporcionar la oportunidad de presentar comentarios orales o escritos o hacer preguntas sobre la solicitud. En general, la TCEQ realiza una reunión pública si el Director Ejecutivo determina que hay un grado de interés público suficiente en la solicitud o si un legislador local lo pide. Una reunión pública no es una audiencia de caso impugnado.

OPORTUNIDAD DE UNA AUDIENCIA DE CASO IMPUGNADO. Después del plazo para presentar comentarios públicos, el Director Ejecutivo considerará todos los comentarios y preparará una respuesta a todos los comentarios públicos pertinentes y materiales, o significativos. La respuesta a los comentarios, junto con la decisión del director ejecutivo con respecto a la solicitud, se enviará por correo a todas las personas que presentaron comentarios públicos o que pidieron estar en una lista de correo para esta solicitud. Si se reciben comentarios, el aviso también proveerá instrucciones para pedir una reconsideración de la decisión del Director Ejecutivo y para pedir una audiencia de caso impugnado. Una audiencia de caso impugnado es un procedimiento legal similar a un procedimiento legal civil en un tribunal de distrito del estado.

PARA PEDIR UNA AUDIENCIA DE CASO IMPUGNADO, USTED DEBE INCLUIR EN SU PEDIDO LOS SIGUIENTES DATOS: su nombre, dirección, y teléfono; nombre del solicitante y número del permiso propuesto; la ubicación y la distancia de su propiedad/actividad con respecto a la instalación propuesta; una descripción específica de la forma cómo usted sería afectado adversamente por la instalación de una manera no común al público en general; una lista de todas las cuestiones de hecho en disputa que usted presente durante el período de comentarios; y la declaración “[Yo/nosotros] solicito/solicitamos una audiencia de caso impugnado”. Después del cierre de todos los períodos de comentarios y de petición que aplican, el Director Ejecutivo enviará la solicitud y cualquier petición para reconsideración o para una audiencia de caso impugnado a los Comisionados de la TCEQ para su consideración durante una reunión programada de la Comisión.

La Comisión sólo puede conceder una petición de una audiencia de caso impugnado sobre los temas que el peticionario haya presentado en sus comentarios oportunos que no fueron retirados posteriormente. Si se concede una audiencia, el tema de la audiencia estará limitado a cuestiones de hecho en disputa o cuestiones mixtas de hecho y de derecho relacionadas a intereses pertinentes y materiales de calidad del agua que se hayan presentado durante el período de comentarios. Si ciertos criterios se cumplen, la TCEQ puede actuar sobre una solicitud para renovar un permiso para descargar aguas residuales sin proveer una oportunidad de una audiencia de caso impugnado.

ACCIÓN DEL DIRECTOR EJECUTIVO. El Director Ejecutivo puede emitir una aprobación final de la solicitud a menos que exista un pedido antes del plazo de vencimiento de una audiencia de caso impugnado o se ha presentado un pedido de reconsideración. Si un pedido ha llegado antes del plazo de vencimiento de la audiencia o el pedido de reconsideración ha sido presentado, el Director Ejecutivo no emitirá una aprobación final sobre el permiso y enviará la solicitud y el pedido a los Comisionados de la TCEQ para consideración en una reunión programada de la Comisión.

This column highlights inspiring stories of Latino leaders. For more than 500 years, Latino men and women have positively influenced the face of United States society. Let us celebrate these outstanding hispanics.

Jose Greco

The greatest flamenco dancer of modern times, Jose Greco was born in 1923 in Italy. He spent several years with his mother's family in Spain before immigrating to the U.S at age 10. Dropping out of school to pursue painting, he caught the performance of Vicente Escudero and immersed himself in Spanish dancing. By 1945, he formed his own ballet company. After winning plaudits throughout Europe, Greco and his ensemble made their U.S debut in 1951. For the next 25 years, Greco revealed the art of flamenco dancing to audiences throughout the world, becoming internationally known. He made TV, movie and symphony guest appearances before retiring from the stage in 1993, leaving his company in the hands of son Jose Greco III.

Centro de Artes Gallery Opens Two Exhibits on Chicano Identity

On February 13, the Department of Arts & Culture will present two landmark exhibits addressing Chicano arts at its Centro de Artes gallery in Market Square. XicanX: New Visions challenges previous and existing surveys of Chicano and Latino identity-based exhibitions. Los Maestros: Early Explorers of Chicano Identity highlights the contributions of active Chicano artists since the start of San Antonio's Chicano arts movement in the 1960s and 1970s. An opening reception will be held February 13 at 6 – 9 p.m. at Centro de Artes. The exhibitions will be on view through June 28, 2020.

XicanX: New Visions, curated by Dos Mestizx, the contemporary XicanX art collective made up of Suzy González and Michael Menchaca, presents a group of artists whose artwork expands upon how Latinx artwork can be established across ideological borders; freely expressing a new wave of images and voices in a post-internet era.

XicanX: New Visions, on display on Centro de Artes' first floor, includes artists Xandra Ibarra, Yvette Mayorga, Efren Ave, Eric J. Garcia, William Camargo, Lisette Chavez, Nabil Gonzalez, Celeste De Luna, Irene Antonia Diane Reece, Jesusa Marie Vargas, Audrya Flores, Lisa Guevara, Kalli Arte Collective, Yvonne Escalante, Daphne Arthur, Michael R. León, Alan Serna, Xavier Robles Armas, Joel "rage.one" Garcia, Josie Del Castillo, Arleene Correa Valencia, Ben Cuevas, Lilia Berenice Hernandez Galusha, Robert Martinez, and Erick Iniguez.

XicanX art recalls the powerful impact of the Chicano Art movement while growing to uphold an inclusivity of both intercultural and intersectional identities. The XicanX Art Movement consists of artists from a variety of regions, genders, and backgrounds, not necessarily with Mexican origins. This exhibition especially highlights the womxn, queer, immigrant, indigenous, and activist artists who are at the forefront of this movement.

The work involves expressions of culture, storytelling around existence and experience, and a transcendence of borders. With roots in painting, murals, and printmaking, the XicanX movement expands to include new media, video, and installation-based art making. These artists are not afraid to use their voices, and often comment on and/or question socio-political issues, identity, and contemporary civil-rights through a conceptual means.

On the second floor of Centro de Artes, Los Maestros: Early Explorers of Chicano Identity focuses on three of the under-represented artists central to the early Chicano arts movement in San Antonio – Jesse Almazán, José Esquivel, and Rudy Treviño. All three artists were members of Con Safo, San Antonio's first Chicano arts collective. This exhibition will focus on their unique contributions and histories as individual artists. This exhibition also marks the first public showing of Jesse Almazán's work since his death in 2002. Jesse's wife, Maggie Almazán, has loaned her collection and archives for the exhibition.

Out of the Chicano civil rights movement of the 1960s and 1970s, a cohort of talented Mexican-American artists emerged in San Antonio, Texas. Excluded from mainstream galleries and museums, these artists began to organize their own groups, exhibitions, and galleries, interweaving their shared artistic aspirations with commentaries on the social movements of the time. Many were employed as commercial artists, graphic designers, and sign painters. However, their passion was for fine art. Together, they opened new doors for one another and for future generations, and entered into an uncharted exploration of Chicano art, politics, and identity.

Centro Cultural Aztlan is the curator of the Los Maestros exhibition. The organization's Executive Director, Malena Gonzalez-Cid, began developing plans for the exhibition in 2018 through a series of interviews with the featured artists.

Centro de Artes Gallery is an institution dedicated to telling the story of the Latino experience in the United States, with a focus on San Antonio and South Texas through local and regional art, history and culture, and dedicated to sharing the transnational experience of Latinos in the United States. In 2018, the City of San Antonio Department of Arts & Culture hosted an open call for exhibitions for Centro de Artes as part of the strategic plan developed for the gallery in collaboration with the community in 2017. XicanX: New Visions and Los Maestros: Early Explorers of Chicano Identity were two of the ten exhibitions selected by the Centro de Artes Committee through the inaugural open call.

About the Artist Emilia Cruz

Bio provided by Centro de Artes

Emilia Cruz is a first generation Mexican American artist born in San Diego, Ca, 1993. She moved to Simi Valley at the age of three but spent most of her childhood weekends traveling back and forth to Tijuana, Baja California, Mexico.

The upbringing she had within these divergent environments ignited an interest for these dual cultural identities which is often referenced in her work. Cruz makes it a point to celebrate women of color, especially those who she has close relationships with. She works primarily with acrylic or oil paints to make her vibrant figurative pieces come to life.
